DETAILED ACTION

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The parent application data and its updated status should be inserted on page 1 of the specification. On page 5, line 23 and page 6, line 4, shouldn't "0.20" be less than the "0.150" dimension referred to on page 5, line 20?

Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 1-16 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 1, line 7, it is not clear what is meant by "without end-for-end reversing". In claim 14, lines 3 and 4, it appears that "push" and "pull" should be reversed. Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 1-16 of this application conflict with claims 1-16 of Application No. 10/987,520. 37 CFR 1.78(b) provides that when two or more applications filed by the same applicant contain conflicting claims, elimination of such claims from all but one application may be required in the absence of good and sufficient reason for their retention during pendency in more than one application. Applicant is required to either cancel the conflicting claims from all but one application or maintain a clear line of demarcation between the applications. See MPEP § 822.

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 1-16 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-16 of copending Application No. 10/987,520. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Martin (092).

It is first noted that “reversible” and “without end-for-end reversing” in claim 1, lines 6-7 are regarded as structurally unsupported functional limitations, of no patentable significance. As seen in figs. 2 and 3, Martin teaches first and second trim assemblies and a cylindrical chassis 23, the chassis having locked and unlocked states and being locked by a latch member defined by the bottommost portion of latch 20 in fig. 3, a solenoid 21 being reversible for an active push by energizing the coil as set forth in column 5, lines 49-56. The coil is also energized for an active pull as set forth in column 5, lines 57-60.

Provided the above double patenting rejection and the above claim objections are overcome:

Claims 3-16 would be objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
